

Field procedure	Lynx kills	Fox kills	Wolf and dog kills	Others

The image is a composite of two photographs. The top-left photo shows a green mountain slope under a cloudy sky. The bottom-left photo shows a dead sheep lying on the ground with a large, bloody wound on its side. The right-side photo shows a live sheep with a similar bloody wound on its neck, being held by a person's hand.
