

Table of International Conventions – Status of adoption by Balkan states (by March, 2002)

	ALBANIA		BULGARIA		FYROM		YUGOSLAVIA		GREECE
	Signed	Ratified	Signed	Ratified	Signed	Ratified	Signed	Ratified	Signed	Ratified
AARHUS	1998	2001	1998	NO	-	-	NO	NO	1998	NO
BERN	1995	1998	1991	1991	1998	-	NO	NO	1979	1983
BONN	2001	2001	-	1999	-	1999	NO	NO	1979	1999
CITES	NO	NO	-	1990	-	2000	NO	NO	-	1993
ESPOO	-	1991	-	1995	-	1999	-	-	1991	1997
RAMSAR	1995	1996	1974	1990	1991	1995	1971	1977	-	1975
RIO	1992	1994	1992	1996	1992	1997	1992	NO	1992	1994

NOTE:

- Cells with "NO" denote no signing or ratification of the relevant convention. Where dash (-) occur, the lack of relevant information is implied.

SOURCE:

- This table was compiled by Spyros Psaroudas, using data and information collected in the framework of the project "Eco-Net" - "Creation of a network for the legal protection and management of protected areas in the Southern Balkans". The project was supported and funded by the Development Assistance Committee (DAC) of OECD, in co-operation with the Greek Ministry of Environment, Land Planning and Public Works, as well as by the Council of Europe, Cultural and Natural Heritage Division. The book Protected Areas in the Southern Balkans: Legislation - Large Carnivores - Transborder Areas. ISBN 960-7742-28-1. ARCTUROS, Thessaloniki 2002 (228 pages), edited by Spyros Psaroudas, was product of this project.