

Dahal B. V. & Dahal S. 2017. Does the marbled cat exist in Nepal? Cat News 66, 31-33. Supporting Online Material.

SOM T1. Marbled cat records from different studies within neighboring countries of Nepal

S.N.	Country	Location	Habitat	Kind of records	References
1.	Bangladesh	Chittagong Hill Forest		Photographic evidence	H. A. Rahman pers comm.
2.	Bangladesh	Srimangal sub district near border to the Indian state of Tripura	Bushes and secondary forest of low hills	Photographic evidence	Khan 2015
3.	Bhutan	Royal Manas National Park		Camera trap picture	Tempa et al. 2013
4.	China	Yunnan province, Guangxi province			Wang & Wang 1986
5.	India	Jeypore-Dehing in the North eastern Indian state of Assam.	Low land forest	camera trap picture	Hance 2010
6.	India	Pakke Tiger Reserve (150m to 2300 m)	Tropical semi evergreen forest, secondary moist bamboo tract	camera trap picture	Lyngdoh et al. 2011
7.	India	In Arunanchal Pradesh of Hija village of lower Subansiri district		Photographic evidence	Selvan et al. 2013
8.	India	Eastern Himalayan foothills (1500-3000m)	Moist deciduous and semi evergreen forest		Biswas et al. 1985)
9.	Indonesia, Malaysia, Vietnam, Thailand, Cambodia, Lao PDR, Brunei Darussalam, Myanmar, Bhutan, India, China and Nepal			Literature review	Nowell& Jackson 1996, Jnawali et al. 2011
10.	Nepal	Nawalparasi district, adjoining to Chitwan National Park		Collection of skin	Nowell & Jackson 1996
11.	Nepal	Hilly regions			Pocock 1932 a, quoting Horsefield)