

Mysłajek R., Kwiatkowska I., Diserens T. A., Haidt A. & Nowak S. 2019. Occurrence of the Eurasian lynx in western Poland after two decades of strict protection. Cat News 69, 12–14. Supporting Online Material.

SOM T1. Records of the Eurasian lynx in western Poland, 2000–2018. Numbers of the areas refer to forests depicted in Fig. 1.

No	Name of the area	Data range	Description	Source
1	Kampinos Forest including Kampinos National Park	2000–2018	Place of the Eurasian lynx reintroduction conducted in 1994–2001. Since then regular records of lynx presence (tracks, direct observations, camera traps), including females with kittens.	Böer et al. 2000 Jędrzejewski et al. 2002 Reklewski 2006 Niedziałkowska et al. 2006 Olszewski 2016 T. Diserens own data from camera trapping
2	Gostynin-Włocławek Forest	2000–2018	Several records of lynx presence (tracks, direct observations), including females with kittens.	Jędrzejewski et al. 2002 Niedziałkowska et al. 2006 Kwiatkowska 2018
3	Bolimów Forest	2000–2004	Several records of the lynx presence (tracks, direct observations), including females with kittens	Niedziałkowska et al. 2006
4	Spała Forest	2007	Dead individual (poached – shot)	Wizimirski 2007
5	Chmielnik	2002	Dead individual (poached – snared)	State Forest Service, unpublished data
6	Włoszczowa	2001–2002	Irregular observations of a single individual	Jędrzejewski et al. 2002 Niedziałkowska et al. 2006
7	Kup	2007	Irregular observations of a single individual	State Forest Service, unpublished data
8	Eastern Sudety Mountains including Stołowe Mountains National Park	2000–2016	Irregular records (tracks, direct observations) of single individuals	Flousek et al. 2014 Mikusek et al. 2018
9	Western Sudety Mountains including Karkonosze National Park	2000–2015	Irregular records (tracks, direct observations) of single individuals	Żuczkowski & Żuczkowski 2012 Flousek et al. 2014 Standard Data Form 2018
10	Noteć Forest	2014	Direct observation and tracks of a single individual	Nowak et al. 2013
11	Tuchola Forest	2001	Tracks of a single individual	Jędrzejewski et al. 2002 Niedziałkowska et al. 2006
12	Polanów Forest	2014	A single individual recorded by camera trap	A. Haidt own data from camera trapping
13	Słowiński National Park	2009	Tracks of a single individual.	Bartoszewicz & Staniaszek 2010

Ltl Acorn 0800 ● 057F 014C 05/08/2018 23:57:26

Ltl Acorn 0800 ● 057F 014C 05/08/2018 23:59:23

SOM F1. Eurasian lynx with killed roe deer in Kampinos National Park (central Poland; Photo T. Diserens).